Management Science as a basic science?
Academic meeting around Armand Hatchuel’s works

7th December 2021
9h00 – 18h30

The meeting will bring together researchers from different countries. It aims to put into perspective Armand Hatchuel’s works and to discuss their present and future impacts. Participants will also highlight the various scientific cooperations that have shaped his academic trajectory and will envision the new questions that they open up for research.

9:00 – 9:30: Introduction to the meeting by Blanche Segrestin, Director of the Center for Management science (I3, MINES ParisTech – PSL University)
09:20-9:30: The Armand effect by Christophe Midler (CRG, Polytechnique)
